Foreign Church Items. Le Christianisme au XIX Siecle informs its readers that Pere Hyacinthe is now in London and suggests "that he seems ready to regulate his course in the only manner which appears logical." "Every one knows," says the Christianisme, "that he admits the Anglican Church within the number of the three Catholie churches which have preserved the traditions which in his eyes are of necessity. Now it is certain that at present the Roman Church will not reform herself sufficiently to admit of his return to her communion. To become of the Greek Church would be no better. It remains, then, not that he should become English, but that he should place himself under the direction of a committee of members of that Church, who would allow Pere Hyacinthe to employ the gifts with which God has endowed him for the evangelization of France.' At Christ church, Ningpo, on Trinity Sunday, three native elergymen, who have been in deacon's orders for more than a year, were admitted to the order of the priesthood by Bishop Russell. The sermon was preached by the Rev. F. F. Gough, the senior missionary. Two or three of the ordained are for the city of Ningpo, and one is to take charge of the church at Z kyi, to the building fund of which Shanghai residents have contributed. The first of a new peal of bells to be creeted in St. Paul's Cathedral arrived last month .-When complete the peal will consist of twelve bells, in all weighing about eleven tons. The cost is borne in part by the City Corporation and in part by the Livery Companies .-The peal is expected to be complete in about six weeks.

The Church Times, which claims to be the organ of the Ritualists, says: "Our quarrel with the Roman Catholic is chiefly on matters of detail; but our quarrel with Protestantism of thefirst principles.'

river hair announces that the Rev. R. B. has resigned the living of Dunston, and secoded to the Church of Rome.
